world so go to our giveaway below and enter to win one of the greatest movies of all time. I have been watching this movie for a long time I love the way it has been directed and the way it has been shot. This film has it all and it is also one of the few giallo movies that really features a killer that has been twisted on mind that is already the man. The reason why I say this is because he is off limits when he stands on his own he seems to be of a pretty creepy person you can sense that he is just a regular joe even the woman that he falls in love with seems to be more on a playful level not that she is a flighty type. Honestly I will see this movie some day on tv and I will be happy. I have been asking for this movie for a long time and I have been wanting to ask you people for a little while if there is any way possible to get it for free and maybe in the process I can get it in HD the whole thing and not have any issues on my end. The reason that I want this so bad is because there are plenty of giallo movies and even if they do get lost in the sauce of a whole bunch of them I just need to have this movie. There are no other movies that give me an intense thrill like this one does just because of the setting and some of the things that happen. I hope that you find someone on here that can give me a way so I can get this movie and I hope that you understand that I know that this is worth a lot of money. I also want to say that this is a good looking website and I think that your giallo section is very innovative but I hope that you can make it go a little more over the top in the way of giving out freebies. Mondo cane also known as It Had To Be Murder is a 1968 giallo directed by Ferdinando Brivio from a script by Giuseppe Moccia. The film stars Edwige Fenech as Manda and Angela Luce as Ines.
